

THINGS TO DO IN GRAPEVINE TEXAS

If you'd like to make a weekend out of your trip to the Dallas Dance Classic, you'll find that Grapevine has so much to offer. Please feel free to call us for help with ideas or your planning.

Here are just a few options:

Explore the heart of Grapevine, the beautifully preserved Historic Main Street, which is lined with more than 80-locally owned restaurants, boutiques, jewelry stores, winery tasting rooms and art galleries. Take a ride on the Grapevine Vintage Railroad, shop until you drop at Grapevine Mills mall, enjoy a performance at the Grapevine Opry Show or learn more about the history of Grapevine at Nash Farm. Outdoor enthusiasts can explore one of the city's many hiking trails, picnic in a neighborhood park or ride a Segway at Lake Grapevine and shop at Bass Pro Shops Outdoor World, a 200,000-square-foot mega-store dedicated to the great outdoors.

The Grapevine Vintage Railroad offers excursions during most of the year: Round Trip Grapevine to the Historic Stockyards

The train to the Stockyards operates Saturday and Sunday most weekends throughout the year, including Memorial Day to Labor Day. The train departs Grapevine at 1 p.m. and arrives in the Stockyards at approximately 2:30 p.m. The return trip departs the Stockyards at 4:15 p.m. and arrives in Grapevine at approximately 5:45 p.m.

The Gaylord Texan is minutes from our hotel and the hotel offers complimentary shuttle service to and from. You could spend the entire evening dining and dancing and just exploring this fabulous hotel. Here are the main dining options and contact numbers for reservations

Old Hickory Steakhouse (Steakhouse)

Phone: 817-778-1000

Glass Cactus Nightclub

Glass Cactus offers creative cocktails and club cuisine along with live nightly entertainment. The state-of-the-art sound stage showcases top national talent along with fantastic local and regional touring acts. Dress Code: Casual
Phone: 817-778-2805

Silver Bar

A welcome sight for weary travelers, the Silver Bar is reminiscent of a saloon from the Old West--exemplified by the silver-plated edge that trims the entire bar. But the feel of a living-room setting gives the space an overall sense of elegance.
